

Title:

Best Practices of Wellness Coaching in Malaysia

Speaker:

Ubashini Jaganathan

Abstract:

Wellness coaching has become increasingly popular worldwide especially within the corporate sector. Employees Assistance Professionals worldwide have taken on board researches that showed more positive engagement amongst employees with well-planned wellness programmes. This presentation showcases some examples of best practices of wellness coaching with employees that has significantly increased engagement in one to one and group sessions with multinational companies in Malaysia.

